

Welcome to EagleWatch

Sam & Riley Wednesday, February 10, 2027

You're on the mountain

Sam & Riley, your date is held and we could not be more glad you are bringing it here. What follows is everything you need in one place, keep it handy, ignore anything that is not yours yet, and know that every detail gets shaped around you.

Your day

Celebrating	Sam & Riley
Date	Wednesday, February 10, 2027
Guests	50
Paid so far	$1,938
Balance	$5,812, due 30 days before

Your package

Five private acres above the gorge, held just for you, tables and chairs for your count, our 165-piece decor library, and a walk-through with Jen to shape the day. Plus everything you chose to add:

Event fee	$2,250
David at the pit	$2,100
Full-day photography with Mel	$2,650
Day-of coordinator	$750
Total	$7,750

Getting here

EagleWatch sits above the gorge at the top of the mountain. We will send precise driving directions, the gate details, and a parking plan for your guests as your date gets closer. Overnight space indoors holds up to 20 of your people; outdoor tent camping is effectively unlimited, and we are happy to share a list of nearby places we love for everyone else.

Your people

The three you will be working with most:

- Jen, your host. She holds the whole vision and shapes the day around you.
- Mel, photography and the details. If you added a session, she will be in touch to plan it.
- David, food and the pit. If catering is on your package, he will reach out about the menu.

What's next

- We will reach out to schedule your walk-through and start shaping the timeline.
- Your balance of $5,812 is due 30 days before your date.
- Start a running list of must-have photos, songs, and any dietary needs, we will fold it all in.
- Questions, any time: just reply to this email.

EagleWatch, five private acres, above the gorge. We cannot wait to host you.